With the upcoming retirement of our current Pastor, TBBC has established a Pastoral Search Committee tasked to obtain applications including copies of all credentials, to interview and to investigate candidates, and bring to the Church family one person as our spiritual leader whose qualifications align with I Timothy 3: 1-7 and Titus 1:6-9. Our spiritual leader must be relatable to our congregation, passionate, engaging, supportive and help people to apply God's word in their lives.

TBBC was founded in 1962. Since its inception, TBBC has been under the leadership of only two Pastors, our founding Pastor and our current Pastor, retiring after twenty-five years. TBBC has a predominately African American congregation located in a very diverse community in Des Moines, Iowa. Our mission is "Investing in Eternity Today for our Future in Heaven Tomorrow." The congregation ranges from 50-70 members. Our sanctuary has the capacity to hold 375. TBBC holds both Men and Women's bible studies, prayer groups, and Awana's. We have a children's Sunday School and nursery program along with a shared adult Sunday School class taught by the Pastor of our sister church. We place great emphasis on Christmas and Easter recitations and skits from our Youth to aid in their spiritual growth. King James Version is our preferred translation.
